Thank you for your interest in the Southern California Drug Metabolism Discussion Group.

In the Southern California area, there are many scientists working on drug metabolism and drug development in both academic and industrial settings. This represents a tremendous resource of talent and information that can be shared for the public good. To take advantage of this resource, we founded a steering committee and established the Southern California Drug Metabolism Discussion Group (SCDMDG).

The SCDMDG is hosting its semi-annual Fall meeting with keynote speaker:

on

Wednesday, December 7, 2016

By way introduction, Dr. Brouwer currently holds the position of:

W. R. Kenan, Jr., Distinguished Professor
Associate Dean for Research and Graduate Education
UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

We are currently accepting sponsorships for the December 7, 2016 meeting and solicit your company's interest. Please note that we have kept our sponsorship levels at their recently lowered rates and there are a number of sponsorship opportunities to meet whatever need your company has.

Gold and Silver sponsors will have the exclusive benefit of a booth area for displaying and distributing company information and brochures during the 90-minute networking & appetizer portion of the meeting, in addition to entrance to the meeting.

If you are interested in sponsoring this event, please download our sponsorship form.

The SCDMDG is a registered tax-exempt non-profit entity (EIN 57-1177117).

On behalf of the SCDMDG Steering Committee, I thank you again for your support and look forward to your attendance at the Fall 2016 meeting and at future meetings.

Sincerely,

John R. Cashman, Ph.D.
